understanding of the topic, high level vocabulary, and correct grammar.

Summary of the main points: having these skills is empowering since it has made me a better and more communicative student.

Topic: The road to success in college is full of obstacles that might interfere with students' reaching their goals.

Thesis: They need support from family and friends, strong motivation, and the ability to focus.

Topic: First, college students need the support of their families to succeed.

Topic: Students need to keep up motivation they need to study.

Topic: Students also need to focus on realistic academic goals.

Concluding paragraph: If they receive financial assistance from their families, they can dedicate all their time to their studies.

Concluding paragraph: When the options are to go to a party with friends or stay home and work, only determined students will choose to study.

Concluding paragraph: the more focused they are on what they want, the better their chances will be to achieve goals.

Summary: An eagle knows how to focus on what it wants and capture it even when the distance is great.
